DATE May 23, 1978

SUBJECT 1978 Fishin' Mission

In response to your recent memorandum regarding the above topic, I shall arrive mid-afternoon, Saturday the 3rd of June in the thriving metropolis of Bridgeport. Accompanying me will be a large, rotund man with no lips by the name of Cuellar or better known as "Cue-lewd".

We will not be bringing any food, lanterns, stoves or any of that so-called 'camping shit' as we will be bunking at the "Best Western" motel. However, I will bring one beat up and worn out bank car for the purpose of thrashing around the mountains and for the pilgrimage to the big town.

See you there and thanks for picking up the tab for all of us.
